Sesquicentennial Observance 2021

Celebrating 150 Years

The Sesquicentennial observance marking our parish's 150th anniversary will run through the fall. The weekly bulletins in this series will feature a historic photograph and explanation as well as a description of a current Cathedral ministry.

Looking Back

The stereopticon picture on the cover shows the first completed phase of the Cathedral. It would take 31 years to complete architect Richard Upjohn's original design.

The finished Nave, with provisions for transepts, was first used on September 3rd, 1871. Original furnishings included the three rose windows, the Fowler memorial triptych window, the Cathedra, and two nave windows. The triptych window and two of the rose windows were destroyed in the 1935 fire.

Even with free sandstone, the Cathedral soon proved to be much more expensive than originally thought. Final costs came in at around $53,000.00.

St. Mark's Ministries Today

Garden Committee: The garden committee brings members of the congregation together to beautify and maintain our grounds. We begin with a Fall Clean-up when the weather cools and, working with an expert gardener, begin to make plans for the coming year. We hope to devise a master plan that will reexamine existing plantings, suggest some changes, and establish procedures for routine maintenance.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everliving God, we humbly pray that, as your only-begotten Son was this day presented in the temple, so we may be presented to you with pure and clean hearts by Jesus Christ our Lord; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The First Lesson

Malachi 3:1-4

Reader: A reading from the Book of the Prophet Malachi.

Thus says the Lord, See, I am sending my messenger to prepare the way before me, and the Lord whom you seek will suddenly come to his temple. The messenger of the covenant in whom you delight— indeed, he is coming, says the Lord of hosts. But who can endure the day of his coming, and who can stand when he appears? For he is like a refiner's fire and like fullers' soap; he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the descendants of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, until they present offerings to the Lord in righteousness. Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the Lord as in the days of old and as in former years.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 84 Quam dilecta

- 1 How dear to me is your dwelling, O Lord of hosts! *
My soul has a desire and longing for the courts of the Lord;
my heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God.
- 2 The sparrow has found her a house and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young; *
by the side of your altars, O Lord of hosts,
my King and my God. REFRAIN
- 3 Happy are they who dwell in your house! *
they will always be praising you.
- 4 Happy are the people whose strength is in you! *
whose hearts are set on the pilgrims' way. REFRAIN
- 5 Those who go through the desolate valley will find it a place of springs, * for the early rains have covered it with pools of water.
- 6 They will climb from height to height, * and the God of gods will reveal himself in Zion. REFRAIN
- 7 Lord God of hosts, hear my prayer; *
hearken, O God of Jacob.
- 8 Behold our defender, O God; *
and look upon the face of your Anointed. REFRAIN
- 9 For one day in your courts is better than a thousand in my own room, * and to stand at the threshold of the house of my God than to dwell in the tents of the wicked.
- 10 For the Lord God is both sun and shield; *
he will give grace and glory; REFRAIN
- 11 No good thing will the Lord withhold * from those who walk with integrity.
- 12 O Lord of hosts, *
happy are they who put their trust in you! REFRAIN

The Second Lesson

Hebrews 2:14-18

Reader: A reading from the Letter to the Hebrews.

Since God's children share flesh and blood, Jesus himself likewise shared the same things, so that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil, and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by the fear of death. For it is clear that he did not come to help angels, but the descendants of Abraham. Therefore he had to become like his brothers and sisters in every respect, so that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make a sacrifice of atonement for the sins of the people. Because he himself was tested by what he suffered, he is able to help those who are being tested.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn Hail to the Lord who comes

Hymnal 259

1 Hail to the Lord who comes, comes to his tem-ple gate;
 2 but, borne up on the throne of Ma-ry's gen-tle breast,
 3 There Jo-seph at her side in rev-erent won-der stands;
 4 O Light of all the earth, thy chil-dren wait for thee!

not with his an-gel host, not in his king-ly state;
 watched by her - teous love, in her fond arms at rest, and, filled with ho - ly joy, old Si-megn in his hands
 Come to thy tem-ples here, that we, from sin set free, no shouts pro-claim him nigh, no crowds his com-ing wait;

 thus to his Fa-ther's house he comes, the heaven-ly guest, takes up the prom-ised child, the glo-ry of all lands, be-fore thy Fa-ther's face may all pre-sent-ed be!

The Gospel

Luke 2:22-40

Deacon: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When the time came for their purification according to the law of Moses, the parents of Jesus brought him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord (as it is written in the law of the Lord, "Every firstborn male shall be designated as holy to the Lord"), and they offered a sacrifice according to what is stated in the law of the Lord, "a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons." Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon; this man was righteous and devout, looking forward to the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit rested on him. It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death before he had seen the Lord's Messiah. Guided by the Spirit, Simeon came into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him what was customary under the law, Simeon took him in his arms and praised God, saying, "Master, now you are dismissing your servant in peace, according to your word; for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you have prepared in the presence of all peoples, a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to your people Israel." And the child's father and mother were amazed at what was being said about him. Then Simeon blessed them and said to his mother Mary, "This child is destined for the falling and the rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be opposed so that the inner thoughts of many will be revealed— and a sword will pierce your own soul too." There was also a prophet, Anna the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was of a great age, having lived with her husband seven years after her marriage, then as a widow to the age of eighty-four. She never left the temple but worshiped there with fasting and prayer night and day. At that moment she came, and began to praise God and to speak about the child to all who were looking for the redemption of Jerusalem. When they had finished everything required by the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth. The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon him.

Deacon: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Homily

The Very Reverend Tyler Doherty

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

PRR 80

Leader

Happy are the ones who put their trust in God! Together with Mary, the Mother of God; Simeon; Anna; and all the righteous, let us present our prayers and our hearts to God, praying "Lord God of Hosts, hear our prayer; Hearken, O God of Jacob."

Fill the members of your Church, O God, with a longing and desire for your presence. Fill us with joy as we approach your altar. Sustain us as we go forth in the name of your Christ. In the Anglican Cycle of Prayer we pray for the Anglican Church of Burundi. We pray also for the guidance of the Holy Spirit as the Diocese of Utah resumes its search for a new bishop.

Silence

Lord God of Hosts, hear our prayer; Hearken, O God of Jacob.

Bless those, O God, who walk with integrity. Give them the strength to stand for truth in an age of deception and spin. Bless the leaders of our nation and guide them in your truth.

Silence

Lord God of Hosts, hear our prayer; Hearken, O God of Jacob.

Almighty God, spring forth new life in desolate places. Restore the beauty and health of your creation.

Silence

Lord God of Hosts, hear our prayer; Hearken, O God of Jacob.

O Lord, you are both sun and shield. On this city shed your light that we might see our best future. Protect us from the forces of violence and hatred that threaten to undermine the future you want for us.

Silence

Lord God of Hosts, hear our prayer; Hearken, O God of Jacob.

Merciful and faithful God, we present to you our brothers and sisters who are now in pain and sorrow. We trust them to your mercy, asking that you would heal them. We pray especially for [N.], those on our parish prayer lists, and those we name either silently or aloud.

The congregation adds their petitions, followed by silence

Lord God of Hosts, hear our prayer; Hearken, O God of Jacob.

Loving God, you sent your Son Jesus to share our human nature, to share our flesh and blood, to share even our suffering and death. We pray for those who suffer and die in the service of others. Grant to all the dead your everlasting peace, [especially, N.].

Silence

Lord God of Hosts, hear our prayer; Hearken, O God of Jacob.

The Celebrant adds a concluding collect

O Lord our God, accept the fervent prayers of your people; in the multitude of your mercies, look with compassion upon us and all who turn to you for help; for you are gracious, O lover of souls, and to you we give glory, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

Confession of Sin

The Deacon or Priest says

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Minister and People

Most merciful God,

we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed,

by what we have done,

and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart;

we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;

that we may delight in your will,

and walk in your ways,

to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Bishop when present, or the Priest, stands and says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People

And also with you.

+THE HOLY COMMUNION+

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer B

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Then, facing the Holy Table, the Celebrant proceeds

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

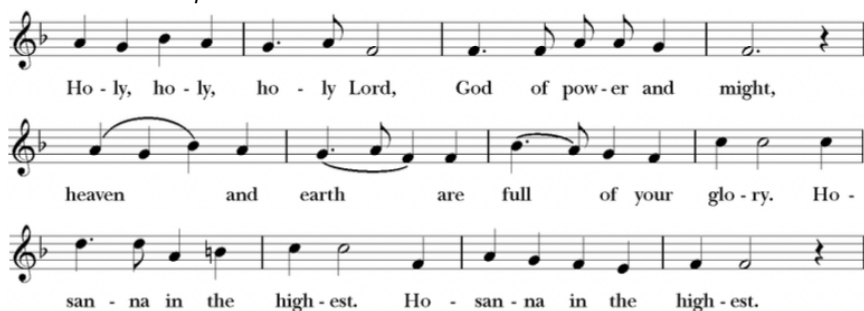

Because in the mystery of the Word made flesh, you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give the knowledge of your glory in the face of your son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus

Celebrant and People

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Then the Celebrant continues

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Celebrant and People

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

The Celebrant continues

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine. We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with the ever-blessed Virgin Mary, St. Mark and all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

People and Celebrant

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name,
 your kingdom come,
 your will be done,
 on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power,
 and the glory are yours,
 now and for ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Celebrant	Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People	Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Prayer for Those Unable to Receive Communion

Celebrant

Faithful God,

in the wonder of your wisdom and love you fed your people in the wilderness with the bread of angels, and you sent Jesus to be the bread of life.

Though your people cannot consume these gifts of bread and wine

we thank you that they have received the forgiveness of sins, and all other benefits of Christ's passion.

By the power of the Holy Spirit,

may we embody your desire and be renewed for your service through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen

Post Communion Prayer

Celebrant and People

Eternal God, heavenly Father,

you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.

Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart;

through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Bishop when present, or the Priest, may bless the people.
